Meeting opened at 7:00 p.m. with introduction of new Precinct Captain, Paul Rasa.

Following introduction of all present, prior minutes were approved.

Chair gave her report and presented committee members with an information sheet from the Mayor's Office of Noise Control, and recommended a short video on their website. She also invited members to a tour of the 9/11 Memorial.

Police Report: Officer Cordero urged all residents to be cautious when pumping gas and to lock their cars, because thieves target unlocked cars and steal the contents or even enter the cars while the drivers are distracted.

Public Comments: The Stiff Weasel opened last week, at the site of the former Dorney & Malone's. The menu did not have any alcohol listed.

Neighbors also complained about conditions at a Saxon Avenue residence.

Complaint about lack of parking, some related to construction, on Broadway near the 230th Street mall, Land & Sea restaurant and other businesses. Customers receive tickets for double parking.

Liquor Licenses: all renewal and new liquor licenses were approved unanimously by A. Feldmeier, S. Alexander, R. Press, J. Donato, C. Donato, A. Creaney, L. Parker, G. Singleton and M. Zegarra-Soja.

Meeting adjourned at 8:05 p.m.
