The Writing Spot

Thursdays
Writers of all levels, genres, and styles can attend and write. Prompts will be given to inspire ideas. We invite you to join us for an informal and relaxed writing experience.

Open Studio: Open Air

Wednesdays (Except the 3rd Wednesday)
Join other potential community artists in the Riverdale Library for an evening of drawing in a judgment-free environment. We will provide the still life. Limited sketching supplies are available, and you can bring your own materials.

Short Story Discussions:

“The Cask of the Amontillado”
by Edgar Allen Poe
Fridays:
January 9th and January 23rd (Virtual)
During a night of carnival revelry, a promise of rare wine lures Fortunato into the depths of a catacomb. What follows is a calculated act of revenge, carried out with calm precision and unsettling restraint. As the walls close in, the story exposes the quiet menace of pride, secrecy, and vengeance pursued without remorse.
